

Lose a game but still Win a friend

I like to play with my friends. Sometimes we play games where someone wins and someone loses. Two games that I like to win are Connect-4 and Checkers. When I win I feel happy. I want my friend to be happy for me when I win too. I don't want my friend to be angry at me when I win. Sometimes my friend will win a game too. That means I lost the game. My friend does not want me to be angry when she wins. I try not to be angry when I lose a game and my friend wins. I want my friend to have fun playing with me. When I lose a game, I can still win the game of making friends when I say "Good Game" or "Great Job."

Congratulating my friends for winning is a great way to make friends.

Lose a game but still Win a friend

I don't want my friend to be angry at me when I win.

and

I try not to be angry when I lose a game and my friend wins.

Congratulating my friends for winning is a great way to make friends.

