

Sharing/Taking turns

When it comes to sharing or taking turns with a friend, there is both Offering to share and Asking. Notice which one has the most treasure chests, or opportunities to give value.

Offering:

1. Get your friends attention (Say his/her name and/or tap on shoulder).

2. Say, “ _____, let’s share.”
[friend’s name]

--- or ---

“ _____, take a turn.”
[friend’s name]

3. Put item in your friend’s hand.

Asking:

1. Get your friends attention (Say his/her name and/or tap on shoulder).

2. Hold out your hand.

3. Say, “ _____, can I use/have the _____?”
[friend’s name]

--- or ---

“ _____, can we share?”
[friend’s name]

4. When the other person does not comply with request, move on and ask another person.
